Day 3 of National Youth Violence Prevention Week: Know Your Rights

The City of Columbia Parks and Recreation Department and the Columbia Police Department will host the Know Your Rights seminar today at the Eau Claire Print Building for Day 3 of the annual National Youth Violence Prevention Week.

Officers with the Columbia Police Department and lawyers will provide useful tips on interacting with the police and understanding your legal rights.

WHAT: Know Your Rights – Columbia Police Department

WHEN: Today, April 5 from 6-8 p.m.

WHERE: Eau Claire Print Building, 3907 Ensor Avenue

National Youth Violence Prevention Week is held in order to raise awareness and educate students, teachers, school administrators and staff, school resource officers, parents and the public about effective ways to prevent and reduce youth violence.

Various activities were scheduled from April 3-8 to recognize National Youth Violence Prevention Week. The events will demonstrate the positive role young people can have in making their schools and communities safer. All events are free and open to the public. Youth, adults, parents, mentors and youth leaders are encouraged to attend.

For more information, please call the Parks and Recreation Department at 803-545-3100 or visit www.columbiasc.net.
